... A Partial list

Prof. J. Philip, Founder & Chairman, XIME Bangalore.

A “home - grown guru in management education” was how Prof. J. Philip, the Founder and Chairman of XIME Bangalore was described in an issue of ‘Indian Management’.

His unique professional career spanning six decades began with the renowned XLRI in 1960 where he was appointed as Dean in 1970 and he co-founded its prestigious PGDM Programme. After a productive stint in industry, he returned to academics as Director IIM Bangalore (1985-91).

Of the several distinctive contributions that he has made to Indian Management Education, the following stand out:

- Formation of the Association of Indian Management Schools (AIMS) in 1988.
- Establishment of the Association of BRICS Business Schools in January 2009 (ABBS) and
- Creation of Karnataka Association of Autonomous Business Schools (KAABS) in 2012.

He was honoured by:

- XLRI, his alma-mater, with its Alumni Life Time Achievement Award in 2009.
- All India Management Association [AIMA] with its prestigious Kewal Nohria Award for Leadership in Management Education in 2011.
- The Hindu as a ‘Doyen’ of Education in Karnataka in 2017.

He along with an outstanding group of academicians and public spirited men founded XIME Bangalore in 1991. The institution has added over the years two more campuses in Kochi & Chennai.
